Pont en Royan – Choranche Caves

Thursday, April 11th from 9:00am to 5:00pm

In the morning, after driving on "Gorges de la Bourne" road (carved into the cliff in 1872 after 11 years of titanic work), we will visit Pont en Royan, one of the most curious towns of Dauphiné thanks to its hanging houses with colorful facades that dominate the La Bourne river.

For lunch we will make a picnic with local products and taste the "Délice de noix au miel", a delicious mixture of nuts and honey in a "hut" at the foot of the cliffs.

Afternoon, the Choranche Caves will propel you into another dimension for a trip full of emotions and sensations. The water of lakes and rivers with emerald reflections splashes the white rocks. A trip back in time of more than 70 million years.
