Le Trièves

Chichiliane and Mont Aiguille

Friday, September 25th 2020 from 9:30am to 3:00pm

Walking and relaxing day in this beautiful Trièves region. We spend some time in the area dominated by Mont Aiguille, majestic peak, and the birthplace of mountaineering. Chichiliane is a village rich in art and history: prehistoric traces, High Place of Resistance....

Then we will have a walk at the foot of Mont Aiguille, 2087 meters high. With its curious inverted pyramid silhouette, Mont Aiguille was nicknamed "Mount Inaccessible" in the twelfth century. In 1492 the King of France, Charles VIII ordered its ascent, it was Antoine de Ville who undertook this delicate mission with ladders ... August 27, 1957, Henri Giraud, aviator, will put his plane on the summit plateau. A grandiose setting ...

According to the weather, you have to bring a picnic for lunch or we'll go to a restaurant, It's better to wear good hiking shoes (or strong sport shoes).

If we have time, we'll buy some local cheese

Meeting point : At 9:30 am. Back to Grenoble at 3:00pm. Meeting point will be defined later. If we are more than 5, we need another car, thank you....
